

See it...Believe it...Live it!

"Never have we had so many positive comments from our guests on a performer. Everyone seemed to thoroughly enjoy Brian's performance and art. It appealed to everyone in the audience and left them entertained and excited. I have recommended Brian to several other groups and have responded to many requests from our guests to provide information regarding him for their own events. He was fabulous!" Joy Gish, Sprint

Empowering those who experience him to live with passion and to try something different; that is what Brian Olsen is all about! He engages people in a way that stays with them far longer than a "comedy act" or a "big trick".

As the only student of legendary artist Denny Dent, Brian expands the original message of "be what you are, be creative"! Moreover, Brian's natural ability to connect with his audience creates an amazing exchange of energy.

Brian's extensive experience in the special event world delivers that "WOW" all event planners seek!
